The Drappier Carte d'Or expresses all the aromas of the noble grape variety Pinot Noir. This in fact constitutes at least 80% of the blend. A red grape producing white juice, it is sought after not only for its structure but also for its very characteristic fine notes of red fruits.

CHAMPAGNE DRAPPIER

Surrounding Champagne's ancient capital of Troyes, 65 miles south of Épernay, the Aube is Champagne's southernmost appellation. Between its warmer climate and the Aube soils of Kimmeridgian limestone, this is a land of riper, more expressive fruit -with enviable phenolics at harvest time yet plenty of champenois energy. A land well suited to all the permitted varieties, it is Pinot Noir that generally reigns supreme especially in the case of Drappier in Urville where it reaches a more hedonistic expression altogether. In cellars dating back to 1152, the Drappier family craft organic champagnes with minimal sulfur and modest dosage levels to ensure authenticity and a natural approach.
